Invitation

“After the Munich Security Conference 2016 - Key Security Challenges for the Next Generation”

A Roundtable Discussion

From February 12 to 14, 2016, the world will once again look to Munich. Each February, leading representatives from the worlds of politics and security are invited to the Munich Security Conference, the major global forum for the discussion of security policy, to engage in an intensive debate on current and future security challenges. The U.S. Consulate General Leipzig and the Initiative junger Transatlantiker / Young Transatlantic Initiative cordially invite you to a roundtable discussion on the key outcomes of the 2016 Munich Security Conference.

After The Munich Security Conference 2016
Key Security Challenges for the Next Generation
Thursday, February 18, 2016
6:00 pm
U.S. Consulate General Leipzig
Wilhelm-Seyfferth-Straße 4

Our speaker, Damon Wilson, Vice President of the Atlantic Council, an influential Washington D.C.-based think-tank that focuses on foreign and security policy, will come to Leipzig directly after attending the Munich Security Conference. He will join us to analyze the key results from Munich and assess the foreign policy challenges facing President Obama during his remaining time in office.

Damon Wilson is a U.S. foreign and security policy expert with substantial expertise in German-American relations. From 2004 to 2009, Wilson served as a high-ranking advisor on the U.S. National Security Council and, from 2001 to 2004, he worked for the NATO Secretary General. You can find his biography here: www.atlanticcouncil.org/about/experts/list/damon-wilson.

The roundtable will be moderated by U.S. Consul Robert R. Gatehouse. A maximum of 25 guests are permitted. Please RSVP to jacob.schrot@junge-transatlantiker.de. Seats will be allocated on a first-come, first-served basis. Please bring a valid photo ID to the event and please note that cameras, cell phones and laptops are not permitted in the building. These items can be stored at the entrance of the Consulate.
