aspeers's 10th anniversary celebration journal release on 21 April 2017

On 21 April, 2017 at 5 p.m., American Studies Leipzig will celebrate the release of the tenth issue of aspeers: emerging voices in american studies, Europe's first and currently only peer-reviewed graduate journal in American studies. The publication project is part of American Studies Leipzig's MA program. Over the course of the last semester, an editing team of eleven MA students has worked to select contributions, revise them together with the authors, edit them, and make them ready for publication. The result is a book-size volume to be presented as part of the event.

This tenth issue, publicly available as of Friday's celebration, spotlights the topics of "Frontier, Monsters, and Apocalypse." It contains four academic papers by European MA students, contributions by former alumni, an essay by Professor Anne Koenen, and an interview with author Paul La Farge.

Please join us at Deutsches Literaturinstitut Leipzig (DLL), Wächterstraße 34, on 21 April 2017, 5 p.m., to celebrate! The event is free and open to the public.

For more information on aspeers, please visit: www.aspeers.com

aspeers is part of American Studies Leipzig's MA program. All editorial work is done by graduate students in the program. All European students of American studies (or related fields) are eligible to submit papers for review. The open submission section welcomes all international contributors. aspeers appears annually online and in print. Copies can be ordered online through the aspeers webpage.
