Advising

At the Institute for American Studies, students find a comprehensive network of advising to assist them in all questions relating to the organization of their program of study. To make sure that staff members have time for your questions and concerns, please take note of their office hours (available at the American Studies Website), or make individual appointments.

The following colleagues are available for the following concerns:

- questions relating to program requirements; general guidance and advice on how to organize your studies

Sebastian Herrmann, Katja Kanzler, Frank Usbeck

- advice and services concerning transfer from another university or from another degree program; credit for study abroad

Crister Garrett, Katja Kanzler

- questions relating to specific fields of study, including format of exams:

SHP/Kulturgeschichte Crister Garrett, Frank Usbeck

LC/Literaturwissenschaft Sebastian Herrmann, Katja Kanzler, Anne Koenen

Registration for Classes

Most classes require prior registration. To learn more about registration procedures for students in the Institute's different programs (Magister, BA, MA; service for Lehramt and IALT), please have a look at the Registration Information Sheet available at the American Studies Website.

American Studies Modules

Modules in the BA and MA programs are designed to achieve specific learning goals, they entail a specific amount and specific types of coursework and examinations, and they may have prerequisites. To learn more about these, we strongly encourage you to have a look at your program's Module Catalog (BA; MA) and at the appendix to your Conditions of Study (BA; MA).

International Students

International Students are very welcome in the courses offered by the Institute for American Studies. To learn more about places available in individual courses, please contact the instructor, and describe your situation briefly (i.e., exchange student, international guest student, participating in an international degree program). We will do our very best to include you in our courses and welcome you to the Institute for American Studies.

Courses

For course offerings in English Linguistics, please consult the English Studies Course Catalog, available at the Anglistik Website (<http://www.uni-leipzig.de/~angl>).

You can conveniently browse and download the American Studies course offerings at the American Studies Leipzig website (<http://americanstudies.uni-leipzig.de/curriculum/courses>).

Please keep on checking the course listings for any news and updates.

Unless stated otherwise, classes start in the week of April 7, 2008.
