This lecture series addresses the co-production of spaces and bodies in a series of case studies that focus on the ways bodies and spaces generate and constitute each other in the Americas. The lectures will touch on the intersection of territories, bodies and borders, the embodiment of spaces and the spatiality of bodies as well as on the cultural imaginaries produced in the constitution of spaces and bodies.