

FULBRIGHT LECTURE SERIES

SUMMER 2007 CONTESTING THE PUBLIC SPACE
IN AMERICAN SOCIETY TUESDAYS, 5.15-6.45PM
DRESDNER BANK, DITTRICHRING 5-7, ROOM 401

- April 17 Whose Library is It, Anyway? The Struggle For Control of American Public Libraries, 1876-1914
Charles Johanningsmeier Uni Leipzig | University of Nebraska
- April 24 Election and Campaign Finance Law
Clifford Alan Jones MPI München | University of Florida
- May 8 Social Movements of the 1960s
Christina Gerhardt HIS Hamburg | University of California, Berkeley
- May 15 Black Identity Construction in Europe and the United States
Michelle M. Wright LMU München | University of Minnesota
- May 22 African American Farmers and Civil Rights
Pete Daniel National Museum of American History, Washington, DC
- June 5 Claiming the Public Space for Justice — U.S. New Liberals and the Social Question in the Long Progressive Era
Mary Furner Uni Frankfurt/Main | University of California, Santa Barbara
- June 12 Recasting the History of Border Crossings in the Twentieth Century United States
Dorothee Schneider Uni Leipzig | University of Illinois, Urbana-Champaign
- June 19 Environmental Justice in California and the United States
Kathryn C. Dowling HU Berlin | University of California, Berkeley